Thoughts on the Gospel from Pope Francis.....

*Today we begin the narrative of Jesus' last journey towards Jerusalem, towards the fulfilment of the Messiah's mission. Today St. Luke presents us three characters—three cases of vocation, we could say—that shed light on what is required of those who wish to follow Jesus to the end, completely. In order to follow Jesus, the Church is itinerant, acts promptly, quickly and decisively. The value of these conditions set by Jesus—*itinerancy, promptness and decision—does not lie in a series of saying 'no' to the good and important things in life. Rather, the emphasis is placed on the main objective: to become a disciple of Christ! A free and conscious choice, made out of love, to reciprocate the invaluable grace of God, and not made as a way to promote oneself. This is sad! Woe to those who think about following Jesus for their own advantage, that is, to further their career, to feel important or to acquire a position of prestige. Jesus wants us to be passionate about him and about the Gospel. A heartfelt passion which translates into concrete gestures of proximity, of closeness to the brothers and sisters most in need of welcome and care. Precisely as he himself lived.
