WELCOME TO MASS: If you are a visitor, a new arrival in the area, or a student returning or arriving, please say hello to Fr Stephen or Deacon Paul. There is tea and coffee and conversation available after Mass on Sunday mornings in the hall.

Today we thank God for the Cross of Jesus Christ, the way in which we are saved and find union with God. It is impossible to over-state the importance of the Cross, its declaration of God's love for humanity, and the reverence we should grant it. In the Scriptures today the bronze serpent lifted on a pole shows the Israelites their unfaithfulness and the punishing snakes sent among them, yet promises God's healing. Jesus lifted up on the Cross reveals God's love and mercy offered to all who gaze upon Him with love and penitence in their hearts. Jesus, the Divine Carpenter, meekly accepts the Cross from the hands of His executioners and makes of it the workshop of our salvation where its wood and nails create the profoundest gift imaginable. It becomes a triumphant throne where a cosmic victory changes everything. No other carpenter can fashion God's love and mercy like this!

If you visit the basilica Sancte Croce in Rome, you may come face to face with the relics of the Passion today: a truly moving experience.

God bless, Fr Stephen

HOLY COMMUNION: If you are not a Roman Catholic, a member of a church in full communion with it, or an Orthodox unable to attend an Orthodox Liturgy, you are warmly invited to come forward for a blessing at the time of Holy Communion. Holy Communion cannot be given to all, as it is for us the sign of unity in the faith. Communion is NOT bread and wine, but the Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of God the Son. ST PETER'S HALL: Such a large building complex continues to throw up maintenance issues and therefore costs. The flat roof over the front entrance to the flat and annex is now leaking, alas. This is a part of the complex with the least use. It has been patch repaired to get through the winter. The Pastoral Council will be considering the commissioning of an architect's feasibility study to see how best to create a complex that will see us into the next 50 years plus.

ARRANGING A WEDDING

Congratulations on your engagement! To arrange a wedding, a meeting with Fr Stephen is vital so that the canonical and civil processes can be followed. At least six months' notice is needed.

ARRANGING A BAPTISM

Congratulations on the birth of your baby! Parents must begin the process by seeing Fr Stephen in person at a Sunday Mass. He can then check a few facts and give out a baptism application form. We can't deal with initial arrangements by phone, email or through friends or other family members, but face to face.
