PRAYER FOR PEACE SUNDAY Almighty God, we thank you for your gift of peace. Your peace is 'unarmed and disarming' not victory or defeat, but fraternity and dialogue, the fruit of justice and forgiveness. Open our eyes to see the world, not from the viewpoint of the mighty but from that of the widow, the orphan, the stranger, the wounded child, the exile and the refugee. We pray for change to come—a new era, the dawn of your kingdom of justice and peace. Disarm our hearts, Lord, that we may have peace in ourselves and bring that gift to others. Amen

WELCOME TO MASS: If you are a visitor, or a new arrival in the area, do say hello to Fr Stephen, Deacon Paul or Fr Kevin. There is tea and coffee and conversation available after both Masses on Sundays in the hall. The first reading from Isaiah speaks of the servant called from the womb and sent as 'a light to the nations'. This is not a small calling: God asks the servant to restore His people and reveal His glory. A calling given while yet unborn, no less. Yet the tone is gentle, rooted in God's strength rather than human confidence. In the Gospel, John the Baptist points away from himself and toward Christ, the 'Lamb of God'. His whole mission is to help others recognise Jesus when He appears. Both John and Jesus were destined from the moment of their conceptions in the womb to be herald and saviour—Scripture makes this perfectly clear in the stories of their births. Together, these readings remind us that discipleship is both deeply personal, rooted in the beginning of our unique existence, and profoundly outward-looking. God calls each of us by name, not for our own sake alone, but so that His light may reach others through us. To follow Christ is to become a signpost—quietly, faithfully—helping the world to see the One who brings healing, mercy, and peace. And so on this Peace Sunday, let us all point to the Prince of Peace by seeking His grace to be the disciples He has called us to be.

God bless you, Fr Stephen

HOLY COMMUNION: If you are not a Roman Catholic, a member of a church in full communion with it, or an Orthodox unable to attend an Orthodox Liturgy, you are warmly invited to come forward for a blessing at the time of Holy Communion. Holy Communion cannot be given to all, as it is for us the sign of unity in the faith. Communion is NOT bread and wine, but the Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of God the Son. Let us pray for unity among all Christians, as God wills. Blessed be Jesus in the most Holy Sacrament of the Altar!

THIS WEEK

PEACE SUNDAY: This Sunday is designated Peace Sunday as a day to pray for peace, and to remind us that peace starts with us, in our hearts and minds. Pope Leo asks us to pray for an unarmed and disarming peace. There are so many conflicts, some of which news media simply ignore, as well as others we know so much about. Please pray for the people of Ukraine, Iran, Sudan, the Middle East, Myanmar, Congo, West Africa, Somalia and Ethiopia. There are prayers cards available. Peace Sunday in this country is promoted by Pax Christi who have many resources on their website here paxchristi.org.uk/peace-sunday-2026/

ARRANGING A WEDDING

Congratulations on your engagement! To arrange a wedding, a meeting with Fr Stephen is vital so that the canonical (Church) and civil processes can be followed. At least six months' notice needed.

ARRANGING A BAPTISM

Congratulations on the birth of your baby! Parents must begin the process by seeing Fr Stephen in person at a Sunday Mass. He can then check a few facts and give out a baptism application form. We can't deal with initial arrangements by phone, email or through friends or other family members, but face to face.
